ABOUT US

Strangers for Mary is a network of Marian devotees who carry one another to Jesus.

Core and Content keeps the Catholic core of the network untouched. It writes and approves everything strangers pray and read, keeps every word faithful to the Catechism of the Catholic Church, guards the intentions, and leads on safeguarding. Its head serves as the network's chaplain.

WHY THIS MYSTERY

At the Nativity, the Word became flesh and came close enough to touch. This role makes the faith come close in words strangers read every day.

THE ROLE

You write and edit what strangers read: daily reflections, teaching pieces, the words inside Youkaris and the copy that explains the network to the world. You work with priests who write reflections, edit them for clarity and length, and make sure every word sounds like Strangers for Mary: warm, direct, faithful and never preachy.

WHAT YOU WILL DO

- Write and edit daily reflections and short teaching pieces for Youkaris.
- Edit reflections typed by invited priests for clarity, length and tone, without changing their teaching.

- Write and maintain the words inside Youkaris: onboarding, reminders, messages and help text.
- Keep a house style guide so every writer on the network sounds like one voice.
- Work with Outreach on the website and campaign copy so it stays faithful.
- Prepare content so it can be translated, starting with French.

WHAT WE LOOK FOR

You will need

- A practising Catholic with good knowledge of the faith.
- Excellent written English and a portfolio of published writing.
- Strong editing skills: you make other people's writing clearer without losing their voice.
- The discipline to deliver on time, every week.

It helps if you have

- Experience writing for apps, websites or social media (UX writing).
- Experience in Catholic media, journalism or publishing.
- Working knowledge of French.

IN THE INTERVIEW

Applicants may be invited to a short online interview. We will explore:

- Show us three pieces of your writing, one of them about the faith.
- A short editing exercise on a sample reflection.
- How you would write a reminder that encourages a stranger who has missed three days.

CURRENT PRIORITIES

- Write all onboarding and reminder copy before Youkaris launches.
- Publish the house style guide.
- Have the first month of reflections ready before 1 January 2027.

WHAT IT ASKS OF YOU

A daily Rosary

You pray the full Rosary each day and the Strangers' Prayer after it. As a core team member you are among the first reserve strangers, invited to pray an extra Rosary when a stranger's intention would otherwise go unprayed.

Sunday

Sunday is the one firm commitment. Intentions close at 6pm on Sunday and a new week of prayer begins, so core team members keep the whole day for the network, after Holy Mass.

The rest of the week

There are no fixed hours. Work is organised by project on our internal tool, and you make your own time to deliver what you have agreed to deliver.

Training is provided
We train every volunteer in their role. Roles marked "Training provided" are open to people with no experience in the work, as long as you are willing to learn and to deliver. Roles marked "Experience required" need someone who has done the work before; you still receive onboarding.

Where
Online, from anywhere in the world. We meet in person once a year, at the gathering on the last Saturday of October, and you come if you can.

Discretion
Strangers are known by baptism name and member ID. You never seek, share or store anything that could identify a stranger beyond what your role needs.

Unpaid, and not a job
This is a volunteer role. It is not a job and it is not full-time: there is no salary, allowance, stipend or payment of any kind. You give your gifts to Mary's mission alongside your studies, work and family life, and the network gives you a place among the people who build and carry it.

HOW TO APPLY

Apply for this role on the Volunteer page at www.strangersformary.org. The application asks a few questions about this role, your CV and your confirmation that you understand this is an unpaid volunteer role, not a job. If the place is filled, we keep your application for when it opens again. Questions can go to admin@strangersformary.org.
